LACEY ADAMS, SINGING, GOES TO DEATH

VOICE SHAKES AS THIRD OF KILLERS PAYS FOR MURDER

THIRD OF KILLERS PAYS FOR MURDER

Hymnal Rings From Throat of 38-Year-Old Man as He Enters Death Chamber; Claims Coercion Until Last Moment; Spends Last Hours in Prayer and Says He is Ready to Go

Adams

The soothing tones of an old Negro hymnal echoed through the execution chamber at Ohio Penitentiary Friday night, confidently denying the cold reality of death.

"Death Is Only a Dream, Death Is Only a Dream," sang Lacey Adams, 38-year-old Columbus Negro, as he went fearfully to the electric chair, but today the singer lay dead in a morgue and the undertakers realistically prepared his body for a murderer's grave.

With a voice that wavered and a step that faltered, he became the third to die for the "torture murder" of John Kidney, 75, a Pickaway-co farmer slain last December for a mythical wealth. Arthur Little, victim No. 4, is to be executed July 22. Henry Loudermilk and Walker Brown paid their penalty a week ago last night.

Before entering the death chamber with his ghost-like chant on his lips, Adams told Rev. G. M. Hunter, Negro pastor, that "My conscience is clear," repeated that "I am ready and willing to go," and asserted, as he had hundreds of times before, that he was innocent of real crime because he was "forced" to take part.

Adams' strange courage-bolstering song started when he entered the death chamber and continued while guards strapped him into the chair.

Brilliant white teeth flashing and a strained, unnatural look about his lips, the convict sang earnestly and laboriously, his eyes shooting humble glances out toward the 40 witnesses.

"Death Is Only a Dream, Death Is Only a Dream, Only a Dream of Heaven, Beyond the Dark Stream," went the words.

REVEALS FEELINGS

The end of the song revealed it to be a camouflage for his real feelings. No smile lit up his face; only a set, determined expression. Beyond the song, he had nothing to say.

His watchers, the guards, mechanically slipped the death mask over his face, knocked twice on the executioner's door, and waited. The current raced through his body for a moment, and he was pronounced dead at 8:56 o'clock.

They said Lacey Adams would "crack" but he did not, not unless one counts his voice, which was weak and unsteady near the end of his song.

His execution followed an afternoon of prayer in the company of Rev. Hunter. The minister entered the death chamber with the convict, his hand on a text in the Bible, and took a position near the chair where he fixed his eyes on Adams.

Adams ate his last meal, a chicken dinner alone, and enjoyed the luxury of an expensive cigar.

Then he waited for his "last walk." Winter executions are held at 7 p. m. But there is a tradition that the prisoner's shame should be hidden by darkness, so summer executions are later, due to the longer days.

CONVICTS AT TALKIE

Warden Preston E. Thomas ordered an additional delay because a "talkie" was given for penitentiary prisoners at the prison chapel last night, and the execution was not held until all were returned to their cells.

Adams believed to the last yesterday that he would be granted a stay or a commutation on the basis of testimony by his friends at a hearing before the state parole board Wednesday when they charged that Loudermilk and Brown "coerced" Adams into taking part in the robbery.

Governor George White conferred with the board for more than an hour yesterday before announcing he would not intervene, and it was believed that he overruled a suggestion by the board that mercy be granted.

Rev. Hunter was one who spoke in his behalf at the hearing. He said Adams had always been an extraordinarily religious man, although "easily led." Pickaway Prosecutor Emmett Crist however, charged that Adams really plotted much of the crime, rehearsed the participants, and applied the chloroform to Kidney's face after he was struck.

Crist did not attend the execution last night, nor the one the week before, and does not plan to be a witness at the Little execution. "I feel I have done my work. It's somebody else's job to attend the electrocution," he said.

PLAN BONUS VOTE MONDAY

Propaganda For and Against Measure Seen; Approval In House Seen.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—A flood of propaganda for and against cash payment of the $2,400,000,000 soldiers' bonus descended on the House today as it prepared to take the first step toward passage on Monday.

Letters and telegrams received by worried and weary legislators were supplemented by the personal appeals of the thousands of "bonus vets" who continued to stream through the capitol.

Despite strong opposition, passage is generally predicted in the House. Leading opponents join in the forecast.

Backers of cash payment, on the other hand, frankly admit there is little prospect of the measure of Rep. E. A. Tamm (D. of Texas) becoming law. If the Senate does not stop it, a veto will be upheld in either Senate or House, they say.

Business Order For G. O. P. Meet

CHICAGO, June 11.—The official order of business for the first day of the Republican National convention was announced today as follows:

Tuesday, June 14, 11 a. m.—convention called to order by Senator Simeon D. Fess of Ohio, chairman of the Republican national committee.

Prayer by the Right Rev. James E. Freeman, Episcopal bishop of Washington D. C. Call for convention read by George De B. Keim of New Jersey, secretary of the Republican national committee.

Temporary roll call, election of temporary chairman, address of temporary chairman, election of temporary officers, selection of committee on credentials, committee on permanent organization, committee on rules and order of business and committee on resolutions and miscellaneous business.

CLIFTON OPERATES HIS THEATER HERE

Harry E. Clifton, Saturday, announced that he has taken over the management of the Cliftona theatre from Ralph Reisinger, of Columbus, who has operated the moviehouse for the past two months.

Harvey Lyon has been employed by Mr. Clifton as assistant manager and musical director.

Asks Resubmission

Fast upon the heels of the recent repeal declaration of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., comes the announcement of Dr. John R. Mott, president of the International Missionary Council and of the World's Alliance of the Y. M. C. A., that he, too, favors resubmission of the prohibition question to the people. Dr. Mott said that the results of prohibition have been "deplorable" in some sections of the country.

SLAYER TELLS OF HIS CRIME

Washington C. H. Man Says He Would Like To Also Kill Girl In Case.

WASHINGTON, C. H., June 11.—"I'd like to be out of jail long enough to kill the girl, too," Chester Beedy, 38, declared last night after pleading guilty to the first degree murder of Clyde Rowe, 30, his rival in a love affair, police said today.

Beedy, who was bound over to the grand jury, disclaimed all future love for Dorothy Edwards, his former sweetheart whom Rowe was said to have won away from him, and expressed a desire to send her to the same end that befell Rowe, authorities stated.

Rowe and Miss Edwards were seated in an automobile here early this week when three shots rang out and fatally injured Rowe. Following the scramble of steps through an alley, police captured Beedy, who admitted Miss Edwards had been "my girl." Later Beedy allegedly confessed.

Beedy, former Ohio Penitentiary convict, was held today without bond, awaiting grand jury action.

GARNER IS ILL

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Speaker John N. Garner of the House was sent to bed today with a fever and attack of the grippe.

Although suffering from a cold the speaker arrived at his office in the capitol as usual shortly after 7 a. m. His cold continued to grow worse as he handled his correspondence and a fever developed.

Dr. George Culver, house physician, was called. He advised the speaker to go to his hotel and spend the day in bed. Garner reluctantly took his advice.

Ohio Dry Choice Is Veteran In Fight For Prohibition

LIMA, June 11.—A candidate with lots of practice was chosen by the Ohio Prohibition party when tentatively nominated Rev. Anson Sherman Watkins for governor.

Hardly a campaign has passed since 1905 that Dr. Watkins, 58-year-old pastor of the Wesleyan Methodist Episcopal church here, has not had his hat in the ring. He has run for governor, vice president, and president, although he has never won.

WELL KNOWN EDUCATOR

Dr. Watkins, B.S., M.S., Ph.D., H.D., and L.L.D., also is a well-known educator, having formerly been president of Asbury college at Wilmore, Ky., and professor at Ohio Northern university at Ada.

The 18th amendment was the dream of a few idealists in the party when he ran for governor the first time, back in 1905. The law was not much nearer enactment when he was given a place on the

WALSH QUESTIONS EX-CONVICT CHAFFEUR IN KIDNAP-MURDER AFTER MORROW MAID SUICIDES

Ernest Brinkert, New Rochelle, N. Y., Riding With Inspector Today; Man Who 'Broke' Curtis Interrogating Suspect; Bank Deposits of Dead Maid Scrutinized

NEW YORK, June 11.—Ernest Brinkert, who still maintains an imperturbable calm in the face of constant questioning was revealed today as having paid a garage bill in New Rochelle yesterday with bank notes of the same denomination, year and series as those which made up the $50,000 ransom money paid by Dr. John F. Dondon to the representative of the kidnapers of the Lindbergh baby.

The man who police claim was out with Violet Sharpe, the Morrow maid who took her life yesterday just before she was to be questioned by New Jersey state police in connection with the kidnaping and murder of the infant son of Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, paid the money to a garage owner who becoming suspicious turned the note over to Director of Public Safety, James A. Tully.

"A treasury agent," Tully said this morning, "is now checking the serial numbers of the bills against the numbers on the ransom note."

Condon peered intently at the laughing and still defiant Brinkert and admitted that didn't "look like him."

While Walsh and Keaton, two masters in the art of questioning were cajoling, and persuading Brinkert to tell them the truth with all of the skill at their command, other details under the command of Col. H. Norman Schwarzkopf were working on other aspects of the case.

MADE DEPOSITS

It had been reported that Violet Sharpe made several large deposits of money in her bank account after Condon had handed the $50,000 to an alleged representative of the kidnapers. Was this a coincidence or was it as yet vague and intangible thread that might link the dead girl to the crime? No one knows yet but police are investigating her bank account and searching through bank records in an effort to see whether or not she might have made other deposits.

The police were giving out virtually no information. Patiently they explained to questioners that "they had nothing to say yet."

Where was Brinkert? "Oh, he's out with Harry Walsh somewhere?" They said smilingly. "Is there any real link between Brinkert and the kidnaping?" The police shrug their shoulders. "Wait until Harry Walsh comes in."

Inspector Harry Walsh, unknown outside of Jersey City three months ago is now the man of the hour. By skillful cajoling, never abusing or bullying, he made Curtis confess his hoax. Now he is working on an impudent, hard boiled cab driver. His methods may be different but he will get the truth from the New Rochelle man who may be just another innocent pawn in this game which started that windy night of March 1 on the top of a lonely hill in the Sourland mountains and which came to its first great climax when the pitiful remains of the 23 months old Lindbergh baby were found beside a Jersey road.

WITTENBERG SALARY SLASH ANNOUNCED

SPRINGFIELD, June 11.—A 10 per cent salary cut for all faculty members went into effect today at Wittenberg college.

The board of directors also failed to reappoint here yesterday when John F. Kramer of Mansfield was re-elected president of the board.

No departments will be eliminated in the economy program. President, R. E. Tulloss announced. Other officers named by the board were: Rev. E. E. Snyder of Van Wert, vice president; Dr. E. G. Howard of Springfield, secretary; John L. Zimmerman, Springfield, treasurer, and John L. Zimmerman, Jr., of Springfield, assistant treasurer.

To Nominate Smith

To Governor Joseph B. Ely (above) of Massachusetts will fall the honor of putting the name of the "Happy Warrior," former Governor Alfred E. Smith, of New York, in nomination for the Presidency at the coming Democratic convention at Chicago. Gov. Ely was selected at a recent conference of Smith supporters at New York.

BACH GAINS IN CONTEST

Jackson-twp Boy Goes Into Third Place With Greenlee Making Big Jump.

Gene Bach, Jackson-twp youth, displayed much strength in The Herald's Olympic tourney contest during the past week when he recorded 73,350. He was third to Robert Greenlee and Fred Grant for the week, the former counting 168,350 votes and the latter 75,250.

The standing of contestants and their totals Friday evening, June 10, follows:

IGNORE BROWN AT MEETING

Harmony Plan of Republicans Seems 'Shot' as Committee Acts Contrarily.

CHICAGO, June 10. The "harmony convention" for which Republican leaders had been fondly hoping in Chicago seemed in a fair way to be shattered today.

As if the prohibition controversy was not bad enough the convention found itself facing today a fight over the issue of party regularity in the seating of delegates from southern states.

Administration leaders were distinctly nettled over the action of the national committee denying seats to Postmaster General Walter F. Brown, delegate and delegations from South Carolina and Mississippi, and seating the old time regular Republican leaders from those states.

Brown served notice today that he plans to carry the fight for his delegate to the credentials committee and if turned down there to the convention itself.

SCHOOL BAND WILL LEAD PARADE HERE

The Circleville high school band will lead the parade to be held in conjunction with memorial services to be conducted by the Knights of Pythias here Sunday.

Band members are requested to report at Circleville school at 1:30 p. m. to receive uniforms and be given instructions.

Superintendent of County Schools D. L. Buchanan will deliver the memorial address to be held after the decoration of graves at Forest cemetery.

Members of the Knights of Pythias organization are urged to send flowers to the K. of P. hall, N. Court-st., as soon as possible Sunday.

14-YEAR-OLD TO REPRESENT CITY AT MEET

Defeats Charles Weaver in Hot Contest at High-School Friday

SIX IN CONTEST

Ocean City, N. J., Scene of Final Meet

By Pat Kirwin

Rolland "Scotty" Scott, Jr., 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rolland Scott of 205 W. Water-st., representing the eighth grade, is Circleville's marble champion for 1932 and will represent this city in the National Tournament. It is scheduled to begin at Ocean City, N. J., June 27. The playoff was conducted at High-school Friday evening.

A large crowd was on hand to witness the playoff and eight games were played before the winner was determined.

Using his green and white shooter, which he claims he has used since the marble tournament began, "Scotty" entered the first game with five other lads who furnished plenty of stiff competition before the match was over.

"Scotty" easily won the first game played by knocking out six of the thirteen marbles in the ring. William Turner, second grade of Franklin-school was second with three and the other four contestants, Charles Weaver of the High-school, Harvey Johnson of Walnut-st., Albert Eppard of Circleville and Charles Merriman of High-st. each had one of the shots to his credit.

Charles Weaver, runner-up in the tourney, was the winner of the second contest. He shot out eight marbles and barely missed cleaning the ring. In this game "Scotty" failed to get a single marble; Eppard and Merriman got two and Johnson one.

The race continued to grow more interesting when Harvey Johnson of Walnut-st. captured the third game, although it was close. He scored four, Weaver and Merriman tied with three each, Scott had two, Turner one and Eppard none.

SITUATION TENSE

And the situation became more tense as Albert Eppard of Circleville won the fourth game by knocking out four marbles—winning over his nearest opponents, Scott and Merriman who had three each. Johnson got two and Weaver one, in this game.

Charles Weaver's chances of winning the tourney loomed brighter in the fifth game when he won the contest by a one point margin over his three opponents, Johnson, Merriman and Scott, who had three each. Eppard and Turner were killed in this game as their shooters were knocked from the ring.

"Scotty" and Eppard each knocked out four for a tie game in the sixth contest. It was decided to play-off the tie later. Merriman and Weaver each scored two and Turner one, in this game.

In the seventh game, "Scotty" came through to win his second game—knocking four marbles from the ring. Merriman shot out three, Weaver and Turner each two and Eppard and Johnson one each.

It had been decided at the beginning of the tourney that the first lad to win three games would be declared champion and as "Scotty" had won two and tied one, it was decided to play-off the tie game in which Eppard and Scott had shared the honors. "Scotty" made a clean sweep of the game, knocking out ten of the mibs and was immediately declared Circleville's marble champ.

SEEKS NATIONAL

"Scotty" today is only the champion of Circleville, but by the time the National marble tournament is ended he expects to have annexed the supreme prize of the event—the national crown. Short in stature but quick in thought, this Circleville lad plays the marble game well. He is cool in tournament competition. An enthusiastic crowd is music to his ears and the tougher the going gets the better he manipulates his agate. "Scotty" is certain to do himself justice in the national affair due to his expert marksmanship with his green and white shooter which he has dubbed "my champion knock-out."

During the next two weeks until June 26, when he will leave for the national event, "Scotty" plans to put in plenty of practice in preparation for the big time. The regular marble ring will be left at

HONORING ONE'S PARENTS

In 1904, John A. Johnson, the democratic nominee for governor in Minnesota, was overwhelmingly elected. His election was a public expression of admiration for the man who honors his parents.

Ten days before the election, a circular had been widely distributed stating that Mr. Johnson's father had been in the poorhouse and his mother had been forced to take in washing, thereby leaving the impression that a pauper when he could have supported him.

Immediate investigation of the facts proved that the father was a Swedish immigrant who had been put in the poorhouse by friends of the family because he would do nothing to support his wife and children and that young Jackson, then only ten years old, had left school to go to work that he might help to care for the family.

At fourteen, he was his mother's sole support, for she had become too feeble to work. There was just time enough before the election to inform the voters how bravely he had discharged his duty as a small boy and how he had overcome severe hardships by hard work and integrity of character. The election returns gave him the deserved reward.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—True Brotherhood.

I. Joseph Severely Tests His Brethren (42:9-44:17).

Driven by sore need because of the famine, Joseph's brethren came to Egypt to buy food. As Joseph personally dispensed the food, he immediately recognized his brethren upon their arrival in Egypt, but they did not recognize him. In this test Joseph—

1. Accused them of being spies (42:9-17). He declared that they had come to see the nakedness of the land. In spite of their protests of innocence, he cast them into prison and demanded that their younger brother be brought as a proof of the truthfulness of their word.

2. He kept Simeon as a hostage (42:18-28). Joseph declared that because he feared God he sent the rest home with provisions for their families demanding that Benjamin be brought to him. To further impress them with his wisdom and power, Joseph ordered the money of every one to be restored in his sack. Upon the discovery of the money they exclaimed, "What hath God done to us?"

3. Benjamin's peril (44:2-13). By a clever device Joseph's cup was placed in Benjamin's sack and was used as an occasion for bringing them back on the charge of theft. Convicted now of their sins and realizing the seriousness of their situation, Judah pleaded for the release of Benjamin. Benjamin was now being held as the one supposedly guilty of the theft.

11. Judah's Plea (44:18-34). For the turning away of Joseph's anger (vv. 18-22). In this plea he recited the history of the family, their coming to Egypt, and appealed to Joseph on the basis of the effect upon Jacob, their father, if Benjamin were not permitted to accompany them home. In most powerful and persuasive language he set forth the love of Jacob for Benjamin, the son of his old age, and the sole survivor of his beloved wife, Rachel. His plea was as much for his father as for Benjamin.

2. That he himself might be kept in slavery instead of Benjamin (vv. 33, 34). In this he showed his true worth, that is, as being worthy of the trust reposed in him by Jacob his father. The greatest sacrifice that can be made by one is to give himself as a slave for another, even though that one be a brother.

111. Joseph Reveals His Identity (45:1-15). After such a plea as Judah had made it is not surprising that Joseph could no longer restrain himself.

1. He declared his identity (vv. 1-3). This act on the part of Joseph troubled them. It ought to have made them glad. Under ordinary circumstances this would have been a time of exceeding joy, but their sins were in the way. This not only afforded a beautiful example of forgiving love, but most beautifully illustrates Christ's dealing with his brethren, the Jews. When the seven years of famine came his brethren who had left him and sold him were compelled to come to him for aid. Joseph dealt severely with his brethren to test them and to bring them to repentance.

2. He bade his brethren to come near to him (vv. 4-8). When he revealed himself to them, the remembrance of their sins pierced them.

through. How just it would have been now for Joseph to take vengeance upon them. Joseph's first question was about his father, showing that his desire was to put their thoughts far away from their crime. He invited them to come near unto him and assured them that God had overruled their crime for salvation. They meant it for evil, but it was part of God's plan for good. He comforted them. This is exactly what Christ will do for his brethren, the Jews. He will become reconciled unto them and become their Saviour and Benefactor. Just as all Egypt was obliged to come to Joseph for sustenance, and become the servants of Pharaoh through him, so will all the world come to Christ for his blessing and be reconciled to God through him.

3. Joseph sent his brethren away with good news (vv. 9-15). As soon as Joseph's brethren knew him and were reconciled to him they were sent with glad tidings to their father. As soon as the Jews came to know Jesus Christ as the Messiah he will send them away to the ends of the earth with the good news of his saving grace.

Almost twice as many Bibles were sold through the West Indies agency of the American Bible Society in 1931 as in 1930.

A contribution of nearly $4,000 Mex. was sent to China by the Japanese church early in the year for the relief of Chinese sufferers from the flood.

Dr. Lynn Harold Hough is expected to be among the distinguished preachers from America who will visit England this summer under the auspices of the Interchange Council.

Since the opening of the choir and sanctuary of the Washington Cathedral last Ascension Day, congregations ranging from 1000 to 2500 persons have attended the Sunday services, while an average of more than 1700 pilgrims have daily visited the edifice. A total of 24,396 pilgrims and worshippers was recorded by the Cathedral authorities during the two weeks following the opening of the choir.

Preparation is under way for exhibits at the World's Fair which will portray the growth of Christianity in America during the past hundred years. The Federated Churches of Chicago plans to present a topical exhibit, indicating what Christianity has accomplished in the metropolitan area.

Three summer schools for peace teaching are announced by the American Friends Service Committee. One school will be held at Northwestern university, June 20 to July 2; a second at Haverford college, Haverford, Pa. June 13 to 25 and a third at Wellesley college June 23 to July 2. ### Church Forum

What are included in a standard curriculum for the Sunday school in particular or for a program of religious education in general?

Standard "A" curriculum as defined by the International Council of Religious Education includes what ever experience is provided by school in helping pupils learn to live the christian life. It includes not only the course of study but also such elements as the program of worship, service centerpieces, participation in the life of the school and the church and recreational activities which may be considered under the term worship, service, study, social and recreational life, and personal experience in religion and the church.

How evaluate the social and recreational life in the church school curriculum?

Social and recreational activities are a means of developing and expressing fellowship. Such activities should be included in a church curriculum, not for amusement nor as a bait to attract new members, but because of the opportunities which they present for cultivating fellowship, cooperation, self control, fair play, and other desirable traits of character. They should of course be conducted in accordance with high moral ideals.

Reds' Collapse Injures League

NEW YORK, June 10 — As the climax of nine straight defeats, the demoralized Cincinnati Reds settled down in the National League cellar today and Dan Howley's pennant dreams vanished into thin air.

The collapse of the Rhinelanders is a tough break for the whole league. Strengthened by a varied assortment of stars from other clubs in the circuit, the rejuvenated Reds kept well up with the leaders during the early part of the race, and their colorful team proved to be a great drawing card. They still are colorful, but no last-place team ever broke any attendance records.

HAFFEY IS ILL

The Portville crew will do better when their big gunner, Chuck Haffey, recovers from the flu.

Many of Cincinnati's setbacks have been hard-luck defeats, as was the case yesterday. Red Lucas, the Reds' mound ace, pitched a swell game against the giants but lost 4 to 3 due to his misplayed errors, all of New York's runs being unearned. Babe Herman's homer off Earl Hubbell counted two for Cincinnati.

With a clean sweep in the four-game set, the Giants made the best showing in the interseasonal series this week. The Cardinals copped two out of three from the Braves, Brooklyn won three out of four from the Cubs, who relinquished the league lead to the Braves, and the Pirates were held to an even break in four games with the Phils.

In the American league, the Browns won four straight from the Red Sox. New York took three out of four from Detroit; Washington won three out of four from the White Sox and the A's and Cleveland divided four games.

The Red Sox, well on their way toward a new modern record for games lost, suffered their fortieth defeat of the season yesterday in 49 starts. They looked like sure winners until the eighth inning when the Browns scored four runs just enough to win by a 4 to 3 count.

The A's also broke loose with a four-run rally in the tenth to beat Cleveland, 10 to 7, and take fourth place away from the Indians. Cochran and Simmons hit homers.

SCHUBLE BAT

Heinie Schuble, Detroit shortstop, continued his home run spree by hitting two current clouts against New York, but the Yanks won out in the eleventh, 3 to 7, on a double by Combs and a single by Joe Sewell. Gehrig walloped his thirteenth homer.

Gen Alvin Crowder held the White Sox to three hits, Washington winning in a romp, 10 to 0.

A fight between Finn of Brooklyn and Jurgens of Chicago climaxed the bitter feeling between the two clubs. The Dodgers won the ballgame, 4 to 3, due to timely hitting by Stripp and Cucinello. Thurston hit for Brooklyn and outpitched Burchell Grimes.

An error by Dugas gave the Phils a 6 to 5 decision over the Pirates.

Ed Brandt of the Braves and Wild Bill Hallahan of the Cardinals hooked up in a sparkling pitching duel. Boston winning 2 to 1 on hits by Urbanski and Worthington in the sixth and taking the lead in the National league scramble.

Hula Costumes

To make a real hula costume it requires from 40 to 80 ti plant leaves, depending on the size of the dancer. It takes approximately three hours to weave a skirt, the life of which is three days.

CASEY ENTERS DISTRICT GOLF TOURNEY; TO BE HELD MONDAY

Low Waldron of Barberton, to Defend Title Against Field of Crack Professionals and Amateurs Over Wyandot Course At Columbus.

Frank Casey, local golf professional, stands a good chance for the central Ohio district open tournament to be played over the Wyandot course, Columbus, Monday. The contest will be of 36-holes one-day medal play getting underway at 9 a. m.

Low Waldron of Barberton, last year's champion, will head the out-of-the-district pro delegation. His entry has been received.

HAMBRICK IN.—So has that of Archie Hambrick, crack Zanesville sharp shooter, P. O. Hart, Scioto country club, Herb Christopher, York Temple club, Joe Rooney, Minerva Lake; Bob Smith, Indian Springs; Morrey White, Brookside; Leggie Schmutte, Lima; Bill Campbell, Granville; Charles Lomas, Columbus Country club; Steve Zappe, Springfield; Herb Vance, Dublin Road; Joe Thomas, Arlington; and a number of other widely known professionals have entered.

It is possible that the district toga might go to an amateur as a number of collegiate stars have announced their entries. Foremost among these is Johnny Florio, who has qualified for the National Open tourney. Dr. J. G. Love and E. G. Livesey, both of Columbus, besides Bob Kepler and several others are conceded a chance to make things tough.

BROKE PAR.—If Casey can play the type of golf he has been displaying recently he has a good chance to finish high in the standing. A week ago he counted a 72-71 to break par by one stroke over the difficult Wyandot layout.

Waldron won his title in a tournament played last year at the Dayton Country club. He turned in successive rounds of 75 and 72 for a 147, which proved good enough by two strokes of edging out his nearest rival, Steve Zappe of the Springfield Country club. Tied for third in 1931 were Leggie Schmutte and Bob Shave, the latter of Cleveland, each with scores of 150. Last year's amateur contingent was led by young Bobby Servis, of Dayton, present state scholastic champion, who turned in a card of 78-73—151.

A field of close to 50 players is expected to battle it out for this year's championship.

PINTO TO ATTEMPT TO DEFEAT HIS NEMESIS IN SUNDAY GAME

Sunbury To Attempt To Drop Ashville Squad Into Tie For Second Spot in Sunday Game; Large Crowd is Predicted.

"Lefty" Pinto, star Ashville pitcher who is a great favorite with local fans, will doubtlessly attract a large number of Circleville fans to Community Park tomorrow where the Ashville nine is to play host to the strong Sunbury aggregation.

Pinto since joining the Ashville club has won all but one of his games and has been responsible for the team's splendid showing which has put them at the top in the league standing. This former big leaguer has again gotten his arm into form. He has his unique spinner ball working to a perfection and his fast one is almost untouchable. Since with the Ashville team he has averaged ten strikeouts per game and the big "port side" is the talk of the Suburban league.

LOST TO SUNBURY

Ashville meets Sunbury tomorrow, the only team in the league to own a victory over Pinto. It was this same club that handed Lefty the short end of the score when he made his debut in the league. Although it must be admitted that they were rather lucky in beating the hefty hurler in his initial start, one can expect the Delaware-co aggregation to offer some stiff opposition in Sunday's contest. The Sunbury team is managed by the fiery Jim Lake one of the oldest promoters of baseball in the state. Lake knows his baseball and he will have his men out there fighting to drop Ashville into a tie with his team in the league standing. Sunbury is in second place, one game behind the leading Ashville nine.

The visitors will trot out a right handed pitcher who like Mr.

RED BIRDS HOT

COLUMBUS, June 11.—Columbus raced along almost on the second-place Minneapolis team's heels in the American association pennant race today, following its sixth straight victory yesterday.

The Toledo Mud Hens, who have been making a sensational stand after weeks of gloom caused by almost daily defeats, had their winning streak broken yesterday by Kansas City after they had won six in a row.

While the Hens were being humiliated by a 20 to 7 score, the Columbus Red Birds were winning from Milwaukee, 8 to 5, before a crowd of almost 10,000 fans. Only three points kept Columbus out of second place today.

"Pistol Pete" Fowler saved the game for Columbus when young Bill Lee weakened in the last inning. Kansas City made 20 hits off Vangilder, Winegarner and Rabb.

proud of both the park and ball club. Sunday's game will be called promptly at 2:30 p. m. and a record crowd is again expected to witness the contest.

PROFESSORS TO EUROPE
PROVIDENCE, R. I.—Dean R. D. C. Richardson of the Brown University graduate school will head a delegation of professors attending the International Congress of mathematicians this summer in Zurich, Switzerland. Accompanying Richardson will be Professors R. G. Archibald, C. R. Adams and J. D. Tagharkin, all members of the mathematical department.

New England Idiom
"Gore" is an old name for a triangular piece of land, a minor unorganized territory, common in both Maine and Vermont, as between the corners of neighboring counties.

Vegetarian Idiom
Vegetarianism as a word came into use about 1847, but prior to that there were people who lived on a diet that excluded flesh, fowl and fish.

These Potential First Ladies Well Qualified for Position

Wives of Three Leading Democratic Candidates and Daughter of a Fourth Ideally Suited for Job of White House Hostess.

Although a lot has been spoken and written about the capabilities of Presidential candidates in the coming campaign, very little has been said of the woman who may share the success of any one of them. Of course, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, wife of New York's Governor, who is the leading Democratic candidate, needs no introduction to Americans. Born a Roosevelt, she kept the illustrious name intact by marrying one. Mrs. Roosevelt is no stranger to politics and diplomatic usage, so in the event of her husband's victory in the coming campaign she would fit into the role of White House hostess like a hand into a glove.

Mrs. John Nance Garner, wife of the Speaker of the House, would also make an ideal "First Lady." Since her marriage in 1895, she has been "Texas Jack's" secretary and advisor. Their ideal partnership constitutes a romantic story as any in the pages of fiction. Then there is Mrs. Newton D. Baker, who is equipped for the job of presiding at the White House by reason of her association with diplomatic society during her husband's tenure of office as Secretary of War in the late President Wilson's cabinet. One unusual possibility deserves mention. In the event of Governor George White of Ohio being nominated and elected, he will bring the youngest "First Lady" in history to the White House—his 24-year-old daughter, Mary, who is now his official hostess in the gubernatorial mansion of Ohio.

Two tables were assembled and Mrs. R. F. Lilly was winner of score prize. Mrs. I. F. Snyder will be hostess to the club in two weeks.

Miss Lilian VanHyde, teacher in the Cleveland schools, and former teacher in the local schools was in the city, Friday.

Miss Margaret Caulfield of New York City is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Smith at their residence "Sunnyside."

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lutz and Billy Lutz of E. Main-st are visiting this week end with Mrs. Marian Lutz in Cleveland.

Miss Lucile Jones of this city, is visiting Miss Florence Diltz of Greenfield.

WILL GRADUATE FROM O. S. U.

Miss Alice P. Southward, this city, is a member of the class which will be graduated from Ohio State university on the afternoon of June 13 at the 55th annual commencement. The class of 1500 will be addressed by President E. B. Bryan of Ohio university.

Features of the ceremonies will include the conferring of honorary degree upon Charles F. Marvin, chief of the U. S. weather bureau and upon Walter C. O'Kane, noted entomologist, and the award of Lammie medals for outstanding engineering achievements to A. C. Bleiminger, Newell, W. Va., ceramic chemist, and to Ralph D. Mershen, New York electrical engineer. All four are alumni of Ohio State.

ARE HOSTS TO BRIDGE CLUB

Dr. and Mrs. R. F. Lilly were hosts Friday evening to their bridge club of two tables at their home on Watt-st.

Resolutions Of S. S. Meeting

The Pickaway County Council of Religious Education, holding its Sixty-fifth convention in First United Brethren church at Circleville, deeply appreciates the generous hospitality of this splendid church, and the untiring labors of the pastor Rev. W. F. Rutherford and his loyal people in providing for our every comfort. And, We desire further to express our appreciation of the efficient work of our Country Secretary, G. P. Hunsicker, together with the other officers of this organization, and pledge ourselves to the general principles of religion and morality for which they have stood.

We have listened with interest to the State leaders of religious education appearing on our program: Dr. A. T. Arnold, Dr. C. W. Brewbaker, Mrs. R. M. Sandy, Miss Mary K. Stewart, and have been greatly inspired by the song service led by Prof. Leslie Diehl, and will return to our several fields better fitted to carry on our work.

The special music furnished by the Second Baptist quartet, and the Pickaway township High School orchestra has been very helpful and uplifting.

We declare with all possible emphasis our continued, unqualified opposition to the liquor traffic, and our determination to cooperate with every organization and agency pitted against this insidious foe of God and man.

Feeling the need of a more constructive program for the youth of our country, we recommend that this organization provide facilities for their physical, mental and spiritual development through recreational and other activities.

In keeping with the spirit of progress, and demanded by the changing order of things, we request the officers of this organization to study and formulate a more equitable plan for the financing of its work.

PLANTS TO CAN LATE PEA CROP

Local canning factories, Saturday, expected to complete the packing of the early pea crop.

Although the early varieties packed at the Circleville plants have been affected by the drought during April and May, a good late crop is expected, following the recent rains, and if more can be had during June.

About 175 workmen have been used at the Sears and Nicholas factory here with about 150 used at the Winorr plant.

Packing of the late pea crop will probably be started sometime next week and will undoubtedly continue through June.

The only other activity at local plants in recent months was the spinach pack which also failed to come up to standard due to the drought.

The next crop to be packed, following peas, will be sweet corn, starting about August 6.

The Sears and Nicholas plant here packed oven-baked beans during May and will resume packing of the baked beans following the pea pack.

MAKE PLANS FOR CINCONI'S BAND

One of the finest entertainments to ever be held in this city is planned for next Friday when Franklin post, American Legion, band, appears here under the auspices of Howard Hall post No. 134 American Legion.

The entire program will be at Memorial Hall beginning at 8.30 p. m. a dance also planned.

The dynamic director, Alphonse Cincone, will be at the head of his organization and Miss Genevieve Concone, young dramatic soprano, will be featured singer.

The Legion is planning a gala evening, next Friday, and has placed pictures of the Franklin post band about the city in different points of vantage.

MURDER CHARGE TO FACE BRIT HEIRESS

LONDON, June 11.—The charge that Mrs. Elvire Dolores Barne, daughter of a millionaire British knight, fired a revolver shot at Michael Scott Stephen two weeks before he met a mysterious death in her apartment was made today.
